

SW WASHINGTON CO-OP APPLICATION

SW Washington Co-op's goal is to promote small and midsized farm operations in the competitive world of agriculture. Membership offers an alternative to the rising cost of feed and evens the playing field for small and large businesses. Co-op memberships are available to small farms in Clark, Lewis and Cowlitz counties, as well as some Oregon counties. There are two membership plans available:

Annual Basic Membership

- $250 (under extreme hardship a $25 a month payment plan is available with Co-op approval)
- Feed a little over cost
- Ability to purchase other goods that the co-op buys
- Tool and equipment rental (as available).

Executive Voting Membership

- $1,100 a year (no payment plan is available)
- Involved with the purchasing of goods
- Investments in revenue
- Can purchase all products at cost
- Share in free products that become available
- Invitation to attend the quarterly co-op meeting to keep updated on current pricing and products offered. (attendance is NOT mandatory)
- No mark-up and free farm delivery (however additional fees may apply)

Membership application:

Business or Farm Name (optional) _____

Name (first, last) _____ Email _____

Address _____

Membership plan (choose one) Annual Basic $250/year ($50 savings) $25/month payment plan (with approval)

Executive Voting $1,100

_____*(initial)* I understand that membership included an agreement that anything purchased from the Co-op will not be resold within a 300 mile radius of SW Washington Co-op.

_____*(initial)* Membership privileges are for the member only and cannot be shared or transferred with neighboring farms.

_____*(initial)* I understand breaking this agreement may result in the revoking of my membership without refund of dues and that all discharges will be final.

_____*(initial)* Failure to make payments in a timely manner and as agreed upon will result in revoking of membership and discharge from all Co-op programs.

Signature _____

Co-op memberships are all subject to approval. The contract between signer and SW Washington Co-op is an annual agreement. Currently membership is not mandatory; however it will be to the advantage of the customer for informational purposes and product availability.

Phone: 360-703-4544 Email to: info@feedco-op.com

Mail to: 537 Carnine Rd, Castle Rock, WA 98611